At all times during and after the Term of this Agreement, the Visitor will refrain from making any statement (including, without limitation, to any customer, vendor, distributor, supplier, or other business affiliate of the Company or any prospective customer, vendor, distributor, supplier, or business affiliate of the Company, or to any person now or hereafter employed by or affiliated with the Company), whether oral or written, which disparages the Company or its present or former owners, members, managers, partners, stockholders, directors, officers, employees, independent contractors, investors, agents, clients, customers, vendors, distributors, suppliers, other business affiliates, products, services, successors, or assigns. This Section will survive the termination of this Agreement indefinitely.

Any right of the Company to obtain an injunction, restraining order, or other equitable relief will not be deemed a waiver of any right to assert any other remedy that may be available to the Company in law or in equity (including, without limitation, monetary damages). The Visitor hereby authorizes the Company to notify any person or entity about the Company's obligations under this Agreement. This Section will survive the termination of this Agreement indefinitely.

6. Representations and Warranties of Visitor. The Visitor represents and warrants to the Company that: (a) this Agreement is a valid and binding obligation of the Visitor and is enforceable against the Visitor in accordance with its terms; and (b) the Visitor is not a party to or subject to any agreement, judgment, decree, or order that would directly or indirectly affect the Visitor's ability to enter into or perform its obligations under this Agreement. This Section will survive the termination of this Agreement indefinitely.

7. Term; Termination. This Agreement will begin on the Effective Date and will continue for no less than five years therefrom, unless this Agreement is earlier terminated or extended as hereinafter provided (the "Term" of this Agreement). Either Party may terminate this Agreement for convenience by giving the other Party thirty (30) days prior written notice. The expiration or termination of this Agreement shall not relieve a Visitor from complying with the obligations imposed by Section 2, with respect to the use and protection of Confidential Information received prior to the date of termination or expiration of this Agreement. Such obligations shall continue indefinitely from the date of disclosure of the Confidential Information.

8. U.S. Export Control Laws. Except as otherwise provided in writing by the Company, all of the Company's Confidential Information will be considered "export controlled" for purposes of the International Traffic in Arms Regulations ("ITAR") and the Export Administration Regulations ("EAR"), whether labeled as "export controlled" or not. The Visitor understands that there are civil and criminal penalties for failure to comply with U.S. Export Control Laws.

9. If a Government Entity makes any request of the Visitor to disclose the Company's Confidential Information, then the Visitor will promptly notify the Company of such request and the Company may, at its sole discretion, deny such request or provide the Visitor with the appropriate "form, fit, and function data" that would satisfy the request. If the Company decides to provide the appropriate "form, fit, and function data" that would satisfy the request, then the Visitor will only disclose such "form, fit and function data" to the Government Entity making the request and no other Confidential Information of the Company.

This Section will survive the termination of this Agreement indefinitely.

10.2 Survival. The provisions of this Agreement that by their terms or by their nature and content survive or are intended to survive the termination of this Agreement will so survive the termination of this Agreement.

Any suit or proceeding related to this Agreement will be commenced exclusively in the state or federal courts located in Monroe County, New York, and each Party irrevocably consents to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of such courts. No local, general, or trade custom or usage or course of prior dealings between the Parties will be relevant to supplement any term used in this Agreement.

10.10 Binding Effect. This Agreement is binding upon and will inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective legal representatives, heirs, executors, successors, and permitted assigns.

10.11 No Third Party Beneficiary. This Agreement is intended solely for the benefit of the Parties and does not create or grant any right in a person or entity who is not party to this Agreement.

For the avoidance of doubt, when the Visitor signs the Company's Visitor Sign-In Log upon entering the Company's premises, it will constitute the Visitor's counterpart signature page to this Agreement in the Visitor's individual capacity and the Visitor, in the Visitor's individual capacity, will be deemed to have executed and agreed to be bound by the terms of this Agreement.
